

State-Tribal Relations Week 2020

AGENDA

This year the State-Tribal Relations events will start on January 14th and end on January 16th. This year's event carries the theme: "Protecting our Nations."

January 14th

9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.: Tribal youth groups, Tribal, State and Federal law enforcement agencies will set up booths in the Capitol rotunda to share information and promote public safety. Traditional music will be played throughout the day with a small art display from the National Endowment of the Arts winner, Bryan Akipa of the Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe.

2:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.: A mid-afternoon lunch will be provided (buffalo chili), along with a formal awards ceremony to selected tribal groups for their contributions to improving public safety in their tribal communities.

Standing Rock Sioux Tribe Presentation-Chairman Mike Faith

January 15th

9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.: A listening session will be held at the Law Enforcement Training Center, (Mickelson Criminal Justice Center, Classroom A/B, 1302 US-14, Pierre, SD 57501). There will be presentations from local tribal law enforcement, S.D. Department of Public Safety and Bureau of Indian Affairs Office of Justice Services.

5:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.: 1st annual Governor-Chairmen Top Gun Shoot at the Law Enforcement Training Center indoor gun range.

6:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.: Legislative reception/networking event at the Casey Tibbs Hall, 210 Verendrye Dr., Ft. Pierre. Food and native entertainment will be provided.

January 16th

9:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m.: Governor's Tribal Leadership Breakfast at the Governor's Mansion. This is open to the Tribal Chairmen/Presidents and one guest.

1:00 p.m.: State of the Tribes Address (House of Representatives Chambers, Capitol)

WE TRULY HOPE TO SEE EACH TRIBE ATTEND THIS YEAR'S EVENTS.
WOPIDA TANKA!